

Figure 1: Cross-section of the Appalachians. Location of cross-section is shown on the inset map. The cross-section is restored such that the Newala Formation is horizontally dipping. The thicknesses of the units are provided in meters while the age of formation boundaries is shown to the side.